

Raiders 0, 24 Oilers

Raiders quarterback Connor o'Donnell completed 2 of 3 passes on Offense and The Raiders defense forced a turnover and was lead in tackles by Sam Robinson and Cullen Coursey

Broncos 0, 22 Jets

The Jets had an outstanding running game with quarterback Hutch Herchenbach handing off to Ben Phelan who had two touchdowns. Sam Styler contributed with some strong runs and John Thumel recorded his first touchdown of the young season on a QB keeper. Once again, the offensive line did a fine job of providing the holes.

The Jets' defense was led by defensive tackle Dan Nield. Other leaders of the aggressive defensive attack were Nate Yordy and Billy Buss. Some play-saving tackles were also made by defensive end Tony Fancher and cornerback Mike Parker. Zack Jarecki provided tight coverage on the Broncos deep pass plays.

Special teams' coverage on the Jets' kickoffs were solid by covering the entire field. Nield also booted two of three extra-points to add to his team total of seven PATs for the year. The Herchenbach brothers, Heath and Hutch, are perfect in executing their snap and holds for the year.

Broncos Defensive standouts...Clay Cusek, Alex Matseshe

Redskins 0, 24 Chiefs

Chiefs standouts: Nick Duff (2 TD, fumble recovery), Alex Stoller (TD pass, 30 rush yds), Eric Banduch (2 tackle for loss/TFL, pass interception, 30 rush yds), Kristian Meehan (30 rush yds), Nick Schuler (3 TFL, 3 extra point kicks), James Weldon (TFL), Matt Van Dixhorn (TFL)

Noteworthy Redskin Efforts: Mitch Johnson, Ray Trelka, Aaron Banduch, Mattie Gilbert, Kevin O'Linn, Payton

Cruz, Nick Zarling, Charlie Vanden Heuvel Muyuan. Zhang had two tackles for a loss. Luke Miller had a tackle for a loss. Cam Hauri had a tackle for a loss. Bobby Borgeson had a "pancake" block on a kick return Goal line defensive stand for the Redskins defense.

Vikings 20, 0 Colts

Vikings Offensive standouts: Ryan Barth, Zach Labrum, Dylan Weis
Defensive standouts: Richard Cline, Alex Carlino.

The Colts offense finally began to click as they faced off against the vaunted Viking's defense. During the first quarter, on fourth down, the Colts elected to attempt a fourth and 7 play from the Vikings 30 yard line. The misdirection counter sprung Nick Gifford for a 30 yard touchdown scamper. Billy Meyer made good on the extra point attempt. In the second quarter, the Colts defense continued to dominate the Vikings offense and forced them to punt with 1:30 left in the half. On the Colts first offensive play from scrimmage Nick Gifford, once again, sprung loose for 35 yards, to pay dirt. Alex "Rudy" Gough and Stephen "Bones" Skul made terrific blocks to Thus at the end of the first half; the Colts led the Vikings 14 - 0.

In the second half the Vikings defense stiffened. However, the Colts defense decided to take things into their own hands as Alex Kutches intercepted a third quarter pass and scampered 45 yards to the endzone, for his second interception return for a touchdown of the season.

Offensively the Colts were led by Nick Gifford's 100 yards rushing, Robby Bordignon's 84 yards rushing and Stephen "Bones" Skul's 34 yards on the ground. Greg Gough, Billy Meyer and Dallas Delaney also contributed a tremendous blocking effort on the offensive line. Defensively the Colts were once again lead by Alex Kutches, Mitch Horton, Billy Stock, Michael Kolb, Sean Finley and Michael Schostok. Michael Skul and Lucas Brya also contributed with some tremendous pass defense.

Rams 0, 16 Browns

The Browns remain undefeated on the season with a 16-0 win over an improving Rams team. The Browns attack was lead again by its defense which has yet to be scored upon through the third game of the season. Outstanding containment by the cornerbacks, Frankie Skurski and Peter Madigan, and the ends, Tim Madigan and Mark Szkodyn stifled the outside game of the Rams. A strong surge by the line, Matt Spalding, Dillon Sandberg and Chris Schweitzer, and hole filling tackles by the linebackers, Ty Benson, Jack Crandell, Aron Miller and Mark Rhind, and safety Derek Bolman held the Rams to only 3 first downs. On the other side of the ball, the offense backfield, Aron Miller, Andy Munger, Joey Briatta, and Cris Sandberg moved the ball steadily with strong blocking by the line, Patrick Thompson, Matt Spalding, Mark Rhind, Ty Benson, Nick Gavigan, Curtis Hill, Chris Schweitzer and Mike Babowice. An 8-yard run by Aron Miller and a 6-yard run by Joey Briatta followed by 2 PAT by Chris Schweitzer provided the scoring for the Browns.

The Rams Joe Damisch is the kind of player that any defensive coach would love to have on his team. With the mentality of a middle linebacker, Damisch is happiest when he is playing football and hitting someone/anyone. Damisch anchored the Rams defensive line again this Saturday and recorded several solo tackles and well as many assists. In a losing effort, and waiting through two lightning delays, the Rams all had fun playing a challenging game in the rain. The Rams are continuing to improve with every practice and game.